Unforgettable

Her World Magazine held an evening cocktail reception at Modesto's Sri Hartamas recently, to thank advertisers and clients who had supported us throughout the year. The event also served as an avenue in which to present the inaugural issue of Her World Brides.

Approximately 200 guests comprising captains of industry, hoteliers and representatives from the world's leading fashion houses and cosmetic labels were seen having a great time. Entertainment for the evening was provided by a cappella group Six2Eight and stand-up comedian Jit Murad, who had guests in stitches.
